Summerland Credit Union Welcomes
New Vice President Finance & Risk

SUMMERLAND, BC – Summerland Credit Union is pleased to announce that Thom Meyer has joined our organization in the new role of VP Finance and Risk.

Thom brings with him nearly 30 years of experience in finance and the credit union industry, most recently with Aldergrove Credit Union.

Thom is a self-made success story, rising through the credit union ranks and making an impact in many areas of the business over the years including: finance & accounting, risk management, information technology, payments operations and member service. He has earned his reputation as a well-respected industry leader in the area of finance and risk.

President & CEO of Summerland Credit Union, Kelly Marshall commented, “We’re very excited to have Thom join our organization. His depth of experience, knowledge and management capabilities will complement our team and help to further our organization’s success and resilience.”

Thom has a passion and commitment to the cooperative values and philosophy, and deeply cares about how people in the community are looked after.

“I am proud to become part of the Summerland community, and to help the credit union continue to be the local business that cares, listens and contributes to enriching the lives of our members and their communities”, concluded Mr. Meyer.
